USD EVENING COLLEGE REGISTRATION SET

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The University of San Diego's Evening College classes begin September 8, 1975, offering degree and credential programs, as well as personal enrichment courses. Registration for the fall semester is September 4 and 5, 1975.

Bachelor and master degrees in a variety of fields may be earned by taking only evening classes at USD. Bachelor programs available include Business Administration, International Relations, Political Science, and Religious Studies. Master programs in the evening include Business Administration, Education, English, History, International Relations, French and Spanish. Classes toward teaching credentials, other majors, and personal interest are also available.

Up to six units may be taken as a Special Student without completing the regular admissions process. Information on the Evening College may be obtained from Room 108, Founders Hall, USD, or by calling 291-6480, X221.
